Copying

The UK Copyright, Designs and Patents Act of 1988 allows a reader to make a single copy of a limited portion of a work for the purposes of non-commercial research or private study (fair dealing). This limit is subjective and advice should be sought from Macmillan Education. It does not allow the copying of entire books or the making of multiple copies of extracts. In some countries it is possible for schools to do a limited amount of photocopying under the terms of a licence issued by a licensing agency such as the Copyright Licensing Agency (CLA) in the UK. It is also permissible to photocopy copyright material when the publisher has designated a book or part of a book 'photocopiable'. This special permission is always indicated clearly in the book both at the front and on every photocopiable page. Many of the Teacher's Books that accompany Macmillan Education ELT courses contain such photocopiable material. Under no circumstances may schools photocopy materials for use in self-access centres, unless they have registered with the Copyright Licensing Agency or an associated licensing agency and allow/use photocopying strictly in accordance with their regulations. Please see our website or contact Macmillan Education for further details on copying limits.

Rights and Permissions

If you would like to reproduce, translate or quote from material published by Macmillan Education in print, online, on television, on radio or via other digital media, please check first that we are the correct copyright holders by reading the following information: Only titles commencing with the following ISBNs, 978 1405-0, 978 0330, 978 0333, 978 0230 & 978 0435 will be copyrighted to Macmillan Education. For other titles, you will need to consult a bibliographic service such as the British Library or Library of Congress, which will assist you to find the correct copyright holder. Very old Macmillan titles with ISBNs commencing 0023 & 0024 are copyrighted to Prentice Hall/Pearson Higher Education US: USAPermissions@pearson.com. ISBNs commencing 0028 (Macmillan Library Reference titles) are now copyrighted to Cengage. Please contact Cengage directly for any re-use query. Please note also that Free Press, Collier Macmillan and Macmillan Inc. (Macmillan New York) are not part of the Macmillan Group in the UK, these are part of Simon & Schuster in USA: www.simonandschuster.com/about/contact_info. Any requests for Pan Macmillan UK should be sent to: www.panmacmillan.com/trade/adult-rights-permissions; and Palgrave Macmillan UK to: www.palgrave.com/us/rights-permissions. If you have a permissions or rights request, you will need to complete a form to give us full details. Visit www.macmillaneducation.com/rights-and-permissions to access and submit the Rights Request Form.

No requests will be considered or responded to if the required form is not completed. This is to ensure that we have all the necessary data to process your request.

PLEASE NOTE: Macmillan reserves the right to charge an administration fee of £35 to cover any direct costs should your request be granted, and there may also be an additional fee for the right to reproduce or use the material.
